

Research Institute for Higher Education,
Hiroshima University

International Workshop

A Comparative Study of University Governance, Institutional Leaders and Leadership in East Asia and the Pacific

Date: 9:00-17:30 Saturday, 24, February 2018

Venue: Hiroshima Garden Palace

Welcome and Introductions: Tsukasa DAIZEN & Futao HUANG, Hiroshima University, Japan

Chair: Chris HAMMOND, Rikkyo University, Japan

Paper 1: Peter MAASSEN, University of Oslo, Norway “University governance and leadership in North-western Europe”

Paper 2: Hamish COATES & Wen WEN (not presenting), Tsinghua University, P. R. of China “Documenting and Developing University Leadership: Insights from the study of Australian higher education”

Paper 3: Wenqin SHEN, Peking University, P. R. of China “What is the ideal university leadership the perceptions of Chinese university leaders?”

Paper 4: Ka Ho MOK, Lingnan University, Hong Kong, SAR of P. R. of China “Towards collaborative governance of universities: Hong Kong Experience”

Chair: Thomas BROTHERHOOD, IOE, University College London, the United Kingdom

Paper 5: Fujio OHMORI, Tohoku University, Japan “Japanese University Management and Managers in the Context of External and Internal Governance”

Paper 6: Futao HUANG, Tsukasa DAIZEN & Yangson KIM, Hiroshima University, Japan “Any Changes to Governance and Management of Japanese Universities from 1992-2017? Based on main findings from national surveys of the academy”

Paper 7: Jung Cheol SHIN, Seoul National University, Korea “Academic Affiliation of Research Productive Academics under Managerial Governance”

Paper 8: Chuing Prudence CHOU, National Chengchi University, Republic of China, Taiwan “University Governance and Leadership in Taiwan: An Empirical Study of the University President Profile”

Commentary: Anthony WELCH, University of Sydney, Australia

Free to participate

For further details please visit RIHE website at <http://rihe.hiroshima-u.ac.jp/en/>