Day 1 - Wednesday 19th September

Conference Opening   Vice President (Research), Professor Yohsuke Yamamoto   Specially Appointed Professor Shinichi Kobayashi, Research Institute for Higher Education, Hiroshima University School of Education, K102	K115
Issues with Identities of Japanese Academic Professions - Who are they? Professor Emeritus Takashi Hata, Research Institute for Higher Education, Hiroshima University & Tohoku University Chair, Dr Yangson Kim School of Education, K102  14:00-14:15  Afternoon tea & Marché  K109  Navigating Academic Pathways: Exploring Narratives of Career Aspiration and Realisation  Martha Caddell & Kimberly Wilder Edinburgh Napier University  Inspiring colleagues to start again: Learning from failure in academia  Session 1A  Vijay Kumar & Julie Timmermans University of Otago  Female university lecturers' perception of their academic practice in Saudi Arabia  Elke Stracke, University of Canberra; Karin Oerlemans, Kairos Consultancy and Training & Carlos Montana-Hoyos, Dubai Institute of Design and Innovation  15:45-16:15  Preak  K109  K113  K118  Liezel Frick, Stellenbosch University; Kirsi Pyhältö, University of Helsinki & Phillip De Jager, University of Cape Town  15:45-16:15  Preak  K109  K113  K118  Liezel Frick, Stellenbosch University; Kirsi Pyhältö, University of Helsinki & Phillip De Jager, University of Cape Town  15:45-16:15  Jreak  K109  K113  Being an academic: Junior female academics in Korea in the current neoliberal context of higher education  Vangson Kim, Hiroshima University & SeungJung Kim, Seoul National University Seoul National University Being and academics: producing an online academic aritical discursive psychology approach  Juliana Ryan, RMIT University; Sophie Goldingay, Susie Macfarlane, Danielle Hitch & Greer Lamaro Haintz, The University of Adelaide	K115
Navigating Academic Pathways: Exploring Narratives of Career Aspiration and Realisation   Doctoral supervision for career competition. Negotial Social Capital in Research education
Navigating Academic Pathways: Exploring Narratives of Career Aspiration and Realisation  Martha Caddell & Kimberly Wilder Edinburgh Napier University  Inspiring colleagues to start again: Learning from failure in academia  Noinversity of Otago  Female university of Otago  Elke Stracke, University of Canberra; Karin Oerlemans, Kairos Consultancy and Training & Carlos Montana-Hoyos, Dubai Institute of Design and Innovation  15:45-16:15  Pareak  K109  Being an academic: Junior female academics in Korea in the current neoliberal context of higher education  Yangson Kim, Hiroshima University & SeungJung Kim, Seoul National University  Illuminating academic subjectivities and practices using a critical discursive psychology approach  Not at peace: what doctoral students' key experience tell us about being, becoming and unbecoming  Liezel Frick, Stellenbosch University; Kirsi Pyhältö, University of Helsinki & Phillip De Jager, University of Cape Town  State  K109  K113  Learning Experience and Perceived Competencies of Doctoral Students in Hong Kong  Illuminating academic subjectivities and practices using a critical discursive psychology approach  Juliana Ryan, RMIT University; Sophie Goldingay, Susie Macfarlane, Danielle Hitch & Greer Lamaro Haintz,  The University of Adelaide
Career Aspiration and Realisation  Martha Caddell & Kimberly Wilder Edinburgh Napier University  Inspiring colleagues to start again: Learning from failure in academia  Vijay Kumar & Julie Timmermans University of Canberra; Karin Oerlemans, Kairos Consultancy and Training & Carlos Montana-Hoyos, Dubai Institute of Design and Innovation  15:45-16:15  Break  K109  Being an academic: Junior female academics in Korea in the current neoliberal context of higher education  Yangson Kim, Hiroshima University  Session 1B  Career Appiration and Realisation  Social Capital in Research education  Petra Angervall, University of Borås and University of Gothent  Gothenburg & Jan Gustafsson, University of Gothent  How Do Master's Students Perceive Academic Identity and Academic Career Path?  How Do Master's Students Perceive Academic Identity and Academic Career Path?  Not at peace: what doctoral students' key experience tell us about being, becoming and unbecoming  Liezel Frick, Stellenbosch University; Kirsi Pyhältö, University of Helsinki & Phillip De Jager, University of Cape Town  15:45-16:15  Break  K109  Being an academic: Junior female academics in Korea in the current neoliberal context of higher education  Yangson Kim, Hiroshima University & SeungJung Kim, Seoul National University  Illuminating academic subjectivities and practices using a critical discursive psychology approach  Juliana Ryan, RMIT University; Sophie Goldingay, Susie Macfarlane, Danielle Hitch & Greer Lamaro Haintz,  The University of Adelaide		K114
Edinburgh Napier University  Inspiring colleagues to start again: Learning from failure in academia  Vijay Kumar & Julie Timmermans University of Otago  Female university lecturers' perception of their academic practice in Saudi Arabia  Elke Stracke, University of Canberra; Karin Oerlemans, Kairos Consultancy and Training & Carlos Montana-Hoyos, Dubai Institute of Design and Innovation  Break  K109  Being an academic: Junior female academics in Korea in the current neoliberal context of higher education  Yangson Kim, Hiroshima University  Seoul National University  Illuminating academic subjectivities and practices using a critical discursive psychology approach  Juliana Ryan, RMIT University; Sophie Goldingay, Susie Macfarlane, Danielle Hitch & Greer Lamaro Haintz,  Issun Jung  How Do Master's Students Perceive Academic Identity and Academic Path?  How Do Master's Students Perceive Academic Identity and Academic Career Path?  How Do Master's Students Perceive Academic Identity and Academic Career Path?  How Do Master's Students Perceive Academic Identity and Academic Career Path?  How Do Master's Students Perceive Academic Identity and Academic Career Path?  How Do Master's Students Perceive Academic Identity and Academic Career Path?  How Do Master's Students Perceive Academic Identity and Academic Subdentity Students Academic Sudents 'key experience tell us about being, becoming and unbecoming  Liezel Frick, Stellenbosch University; Kirsi Pyhältö, University of Helsinki & Phillip De Jager, University of Cape Town  15:45-16:15  Rt13  Being an academic: Junior female academics in Korea in Learning Experience and Perceived Competencies of Doctoral Students in Hong Kong  The University of Helsinki & Phillip De Jager, University of Doctoral Students in Hong Kong  Learning Experience and Perceived Competence tell us about being, becoming and Ins	Symposium: 90 mins.	Invited Symposium: 90 mins.
Session 1A  Vijay Kumar & Julie Timmermans University of Otago  Female university lecturers' perception of their academic practice in Saudi Arabia  Elke Stracke, University of Canberra; Karin Oerlemans, Kairos Consultancy and Training & Carlos Montana-Hoyos, Dubai Institute of Design and Innovation  15:45-16:15  Break  K109  Being an academic: Junior female academics in Korea in the current neoliberal context of higher education  Yangson Kim, Hiroshima University  The University of Hong Kong  Not at peace: what doctoral students' key experience tell us about being, becoming and unbecoming  Liezel Frick, Stellenbosch University; Kirsi Pyhältö, University of Helsinki & Phillip De Jager, University of Cape Town  15:45-16:15  R13  Learning Experience and Perceived Competencies of Doctoral Students in Hong Kong  Yangson Kim, Hiroshima University & SeungJung Kim, Seoul National University  The University of Hong Kong  Illuminating academic subjectivities and practices using a critical discursive psychology approach  Juliana Ryan, RMIT University; Sophie Goldingay, Susie Macfarlane, Danielle Hitch & Greer Lamaro Haintz,  The University of Adelaide	Intercultural interfaces in academic practices: exploring social engagement and empowerment through international volunteer projects	A decade of dialogue: early deliberations from a cultural history of the Academic Identities conference
University of Otago  Female university lecturers' perception of their academic practice in Saudi Arabia  Elke Stracke, University of Canberra; Karin Oerlemans, Kairos Consultancy and Training & Carlos Montana-Hoyos, Dubai Institute of Design and Innovation  Break  K109  Being an academic: Junior female academics in Korea in the current neoliberal context of higher education  Yangson Kim, Hiroshima University & SeungJung Kim, Seoul National University  Illuminating academic subjectivities and practices using a critical discursive psychology approach  Juliana Ryan, RMIT University; Sophie Goldingay, Susie Macfarlane, Danielle Hitch & Greer Lamaro Haintz,  Not at peace: what doctoral students' heong Not at peace: what doctoral students' heo University; Kirsi Pyhältö, University of Helsinki & Phillip De Jager, University of Cape Town  Learning Experience and Perceived Competencies of Doctoral Students in Hong Kong  Jisun Jung The University of Hong Kong  Becoming academics: producing an online academic persona as a postgraduate student  Cally Guerin & Kim Barbour The University of Adelaide	Aisling O'Boyle, Queen's University Belfast; Kaori Tsukazaki, National Institute of Technology, Kagoshima	Tai Peseta, Western Sydney University; Agnes Bosanquet, Macquarie University; James Burford, Thammasat University, and La Trobe University; Jeanette Fyffe, La
Elke Stracke, University of Canberra; Karin Oerlemans, Kairos Consultancy and Training & Carlos Montana- Hoyos, Dubai Institute of Design and Innovation  15:45-16:15  Break  K109  Being an academic: Junior female academics in Korea in the current neoliberal context of higher education  Yangson Kim, Hiroshima University  Yangson Kim, Hiroshima University  Illuminating academic subjectivities and practices using a critical discursive psychology approach  Session 1B  Liezel Frick, Stellenbosch University; Kirsi Pyhältö, University of Helsinki & Phillip De Jager, University of Cape Town  K113  Learning Experience and Perceived Competencies of Doctoral Students in Hong Kong  Jisun Jung The University of Hong Kong  Illuminating academic subjectivities and practices using a critical discursive psychology approach  Juliana Ryan, RMIT University; Sophie Goldingay, Susie Macfarlane, Danielle Hitch & Greer Lamaro Haintz,  The University of Adelaide	Hachinohe College Sunshine Coast; Fiona Salis	Trobe University; Catherine Manathunga, University of Sunshine Coast; Fiona Salisbury, University of Sydney; Machi Sato, Hiroshima University & Jan Smith,
Kairos Consultancy and Training & Carlos Montana- Hoyos, Dubai Institute of Design and Innovation  15:45-16:15  Break  K109  Being an academic: Junior female academics in Korea in the current neoliberal context of higher education  Yangson Kim, Hiroshima University & SeungJung Kim, Seoul National University  Illuminating academic subjectivities and practices using a critical discursive psychology approach  Juliana Ryan, RMIT University; Sophie Goldingay, Susie Macfarlane, Danielle Hitch & Greer Lamaro Haintz,  University of Helsinki & Phillip De Jager, University of Cape Town  Learning Experience and Perceived Competencies of Doctoral Students in Hong Kong  Jisun Jung The University of Hong Kong  Becoming academics: producing an online academic persona as a postgraduate student  Cally Guerin & Kim Barbour The University of Adelaide		Independent researcher
K109   K113
Being an academic: Junior female academics in Korea in the current neoliberal context of higher education  Yangson Kim, Hiroshima University & SeungJung Kim, Seoul National University  Illuminating academic subjectivities and practices using a critical discursive psychology approach  Juliana Ryan, RMIT University; Sophie Goldingay, Susie Macfarlane, Danielle Hitch & Greer Lamaro Haintz,  Learning Experience and Perceived Competencies of Doctoral Students in Hong Kong  Jisun Jung The University of Hong Kong  Becoming academics: producing an online academic persona as a postgraduate student  Cally Guerin & Kim Barbour The University of Adelaide
the current neoliberal context of higher education  Yangson Kim, Hiroshima University & SeungJung Kim, Seoul National University  Illuminating academic subjectivities and practices using a critical discursive psychology approach  Juliana Ryan, RMIT University; Sophie Goldingay, Susie Macfarlane, Danielle Hitch & Greer Lamaro Haintz,  Doctoral Students in Hong Kong  Jisun Jung The University of Hong Kong  Becoming academics: producing an online academic persona as a postgraduate student  Cally Guerin & Kim Barbour The University of Adelaide	K115	K114
Seoul National University  The University of Hong Kong  Illuminating academic subjectivities and practices using a critical discursive psychology approach  Juliana Ryan, RMIT University; Sophie Goldingay, Susie Macfarlane, Danielle Hitch & Greer Lamaro Haintz,  The University of Hong Kong  Becoming academics: producing an online academic persona as a postgraduate student  Cally Guerin & Kim Barbour The University of Adelaide	Reviewing the field: Mapping theorisations of academic identity	Research education and care: the care-full PhD
16:15-17:45 critical discursive psychology approach persona as a postgraduate student  Session 1B Juliana Ryan, RMIT University; Sophie Goldingay, Susie Macfarlane, Danielle Hitch & Greer Lamaro Haintz, The University of Adelaide	Mark Barrow, Barbara Grant & Linlin Xu University of Auckland	Robyn Barnacle RMIT University
Macfarlane, Danielle Hitch & Greer Lamaro Haintz,  The University of Adelaide	Academic identities, artistic selves and writing  Cecile Badenhorst, Heather McLeod & Haley Toll	Overdoing it? Aacdemic hunger games: burnout, personal and professional tensions and academic identities in the neoliberal university
Sealin Silversity	Memorial University	Gina Wisker University of Brighton
How to make an academic: a practical guide  Pressed for time: Doctoral candidates and early caree academics' experiences of temporal anxiety	Development of academic identity through a Faculty Learning Community in a Post-1992 University in	Exploring the factors of Pursuing Master's Degree in South Korea
Bridget Hanna Edinburgh Napier University Agnes Bosanquet, Macquarie University; Lilia Mantai University of Sydney & Vanessa Fredericks, Universit New South Wales	Scotland  Gráinne Barkess & Anne Tierney	Soo Jeung Lee, Sejong University & Jisun Jung, The University of Hong Kong
18:00-19:30 Welcome Reception	Edinburgh Napier University

Day 2 - Thursday 20th September

8:30-9:00	Irsday 20th September Registration desk
	K109	K113	K115	K114
	Student-Staff Partnerships: responding compassionately to 'big data'  Sarah Parkes, Helen Bardy & Adam Benkwitz	Intercultural thesis supervision in Thai higher education: The experiences of Thai students Puntaree Tantasuwan	Pushing Academic Identity Development Further: imagination, creativity and ensoulment Susan Carter	Performance: 30 mins.  (Un)becoming academics: stripping down and laying bare, to story spaces of hope
	Newman University Birmingham	Thammasat University	University of Auckland	Ali Black & Gail Crimmins, University of the Sunshine Coast; Linda Henderson, Monash University & Janice Jones, University of Southern Queensland (Catherine Manathunga to present)
9:00-10:30	Building powerful partnerships: considerations for the	Language and culture matter: intercultural team	Learning from the outsider-within in the Japanese	Bridges over troubled water: understanding the identity
Session 2A	transformative potential of partnership work between staff and students	supervision of doctoral students in Australia	academy	development of medical educators
		Margaret Robertson & Minh Nguyen	Momoyo Mitsuno	Jo Horsburgh
	Jennifer Fraser University of Westminster	La Trobe University	Oita College of Arts and Culture	Imperial College London
		Art meets science: Academic being and becoming across	Using Multiple Methods to Examine Academic Identity	Co-operation and sharing: Teaching-focused academic
	Higher Education	discipines	Kelsey Inouye & Lynn McAlpine	identity in UK Life Sciences departments in a research- dominated culture
	Heather McKnight	Kay Hammond & Amabel Hunting Auckland University of Technology	University of Oxford	Anno Margaret Tierney
	University of Sussex	Additional of the children of		Anne Margaret Tierney Edinburgh Napier University
10:30-11:00	Morning tea & Marché
	K109	K113	K115	K114
	Engaging place: Academic identity work in a (southern) settler colonial university	Round Table: 60 mins.	Academic work and embodied practice	Invited Symposium: 90 mins.
	Avril Bell University of Auckland	English-Medium Instruction and Professional Identity of Faculty Memebers	Jennifer Leigh University of Kent	Academic identity in doctoral thesis acknowledgements: Formations in place, space and time
11:00-12:30	The academic identity of international junior faculty at Japanese universities: the importance of regional origin and tenure status	Yukako Yonezawa Tohoku University	Academic identity and performativity: confessions of an insecure academic and the adventures of a highly cited paper	Barbara Grant & Frances Kelly, University of Auckland; Catherine Manathunga, University of the Sunshine Coast; Cally Guerin, University of Adelaide & Machi Sato,
Session 2B	Yangson Kim & Thomas Brotherhood, Hiroshima University; Christopher Hammond, Rikkyo University		Alistair McCulloch University of South Australia	Hiroshima University
		1	You do not know my story': analysing tales of transitions
	International Colleges and the Cultivation of Social Capital in a Divided Thailand	ldentity and body work in academia - the present and the future	into higher education teaching told from an academic development perspective
	· ·	·	into higher education teaching told from an academic

14:30-15:00 15:00-16:00 Session 2C	Negotiating multiple forms of stigma in the Australian academy: A charismatic call to action	K113 Round Table: 60 mins.  Doctoral supervision: identities, influence and 'becoming' Grainne Barkess Edinburgh Napier University	K115 Invited Presentation: 60 mins.  Research into Academic Profession at the RIHE Futao Huang, Tsukawa Daizen & Yangson Kim Hiroshima University	K114  Performance: 60 mins.  The Art of Generous Scholarship and the Japanese Tea Ceremony
15:00-16:00 Session 2C	Round Table: 60 mins.  Negotiating multiple forms of stigma in the Australian academy: A charismatic call to action  Melinda J Lewis, Charles Sturt University & Rosanne Quinnell, The University of Sydney	Round Table: 60 mins.  Doctoral supervision: identities, influence and 'becoming' Grainne Barkess	Invited Presentation: 60 mins.  Research into Academic Profession at the RIHE  Futao Huang, Tsukawa Daizen & Yangson Kim	Performance: 60 mins.  The Art of Generous Scholarship and the Japanese Tea Ceremony
Session 2C	Round Table: 60 mins.  Negotiating multiple forms of stigma in the Australian academy: A charismatic call to action  Melinda J Lewis, Charles Sturt University & Rosanne Quinnell, The University of Sydney	Round Table: 60 mins.  Doctoral supervision: identities, influence and 'becoming' Grainne Barkess	Invited Presentation: 60 mins.  Research into Academic Profession at the RIHE  Futao Huang, Tsukawa Daizen & Yangson Kim	Performance: 60 mins.  The Art of Generous Scholarship and the Japanese Tea Ceremony
Session 2C	Negotiating multiple forms of stigma in the Australian academy: A charismatic call to action  Melinda J Lewis, Charles Sturt University & Rosanne Quinnell, The University of Sydney	Doctoral supervision: identities, influence and 'becoming' Grainne Barkess	Research into Academic Profession at the RIHE Futao Huang, Tsukawa Daizen & Yangson Kim	The Art of Generous Scholarship and the Japanese Tea Ceremony
Session 2C	academy: A charismatic call to action  Melinda J Lewis, Charles Sturt University & Rosanne Quinnell, The University of Sydney	Grainne Barkess	Futao Huang, Tsukawa Daizen & Yangson Kim	Ceremony
	Melinda J Lewis, Charles Sturt University & Rosanne Quinnell, The University of Sydney		9.	,
16:00-16:15	Break			Sally Knowles, Edith Cowan University & Barbara Grant, The University of Auckland
16:15-17:45 Session 2D	educational developers be in a technology-driven future?  Claire Aitchison, Rowena Harper & Negin Mirriahi, University of South Australia; Cally Guerin, University of Adelaide  Fashioning the Academic  Emma Davenport London Metropolitan University	R113  Being a teacher in the academy: Mentoring doctoral candidates in allied health to be disciplinary stewards  Tracy Fortune, Jeanette Fyffe, Sarah Barradell & Chris Bruce, La Trobe University  Identity and Continuing Professional Development for Teaching and Learning in Further and Higher Education A case study in Wales and Scotland  Charles Buckley, Liverpool University & Gary Husband, Stirling University	Round Table: 60 mins.  Generosity and Kindness in the academy: What keeps us in acdaemia?  Martha Caddell & Anne Tierney Edinburgh Napier University	Invited Symposium: 90 mins.  What do we share as academics? Constructing 'academicness' as a new concept to capture shared values, identity and culture among diverse academic professions  Machi Sato, Hiroshima University, Shinji Tateishi, National Institute for Educational Policy Research, Masaaki Sugihara, University of the Sacred Heart & Kazuaki Maruyama, Nagoya University
	Frances Kelly University of Auckland	Mainstreaming Research and the Changing of Academic Career in Indonesian Higher Education Abdul Hamid Sultan Ageng Tirtayasa University	Performance: 30 mins Exloring embodied academic identity through creative research methods  Jennifer Leigh & Catriona Anne Blackburn University of Kent

Day 3 - Friday 21st September

9:00-9:30	Registration desk
	K109	K113	K115	K114
	Blurring the boundaries: academic staff as doctoral	On Holistic Admissions candidates		Symposium: 90 mins.	Invited Symposium: 90 mins.
		Julie Posselt, University of Southern California & Casey
	Jan Smith, Independent Researcher; Virginia King & Lynn	Miller, Rochester Institute of Technology	Internationalisation and academic mobility in Thai higher	Stewardship as the heart of the future doctorate
	Clouder, Coventry University; Jennie Billot, Auckland		education"	exercising in becoming academic for the university, and
	University of Technology			beyond
	Scholarship as collaboration: Towards a rhetoric of	On being reviewed: From ghosts that haunt in isolation	James Burford, Thammasat University ,and La Trobe generosity	toward connection and unexpected agency	University; Harald Kraus, Mary Eppolite & Thornchannok	Simon Barrie & Tai Peseta, Western Sydney University;
9:30-11:00	generosity	loward connection and unexpected agency	Uerpairojkit, Thammasat University	Jeanette Fyffe, La Trobe University
9.30-11.00	Anthony Paré	Cecile Badenhorst, Sarah Pickett, Christine Arnold, Leah
Session 3A	University of British Columbia	Lewis, Jan Buley, Jennifer Godfrey, Karen Goodnough,
Session SA	Offiversity of British Columbia	Kimberly Maich, Heather McLeod, Sharon Penney,
		Gabrielle Young & Dorothy Vaandering
		Memorial University
		ivernorial offiversity
	Collegiality as resonance with 'worlds for' academics -	The solace of slow academia (or breathing room)
	beyond tradition vs managerialism
		Agnes Bosanquet
	Giedre Kligyte	Macquarie University
	The University of Sydney & University of Technology
	Sydney
11:00-11:30	Morning tea
	K109	K113	K115	K114
	Engaging academic librarians in the idea of the	Conditions for Doctoral Creativity: Envisioning Paths for university: identity, collaboration and ruminations on the	Future Academics and Universities	Round Table: 60 mins.	Symposium: 90 mins.
	'third space'
		Liezel Frick, Stellenbosch University & Eva Brodin, Lund	Academics ageing (dis)gracefully: pleasures and pains	Transforming identity through authentic collaboration
	Fiona Salisbury, University of Sydney & Tai Peseta,	University
	Western Sydney University		Claire Aitchison, University of South Australia; Cally	Caroline Clewley, Monika Pazio & Martyn Kingsbury
				Imperial College London
l	How can reviving the 'idea of the university' through a	Doctoral students' experiences of publishing and identity	Guerin, University of Adelaide; Anthony Paré, University	imperial college London
	How can reviving the 'idea of the university' through a reading group bring forth a future university we want to	Doctoral students' experiences of publishing and identity formation	of British Columbia & Helen Benzie, University of South	Imperial College London
44 20 42 00	reading group bring forth a future university we want to	Doctoral students' experiences of publishing and identity formation		imperial conege condon
11:30-13:00	,	formation	of British Columbia & Helen Benzie, University of South	imperial conege condon
11:30-13:00	reading group bring forth a future university we want to inhabit?	formation Linlin Xu & Barbara Grant	of British Columbia & Helen Benzie, University of South	imperial college collidor
11:30-13:00 Session 3B	reading group bring forth a future university we want to inhabit?  Jeanette Fyffe, Fiona Salisbury, Matt Brett & John	formation  Linlin Xu & Barbara Grant  University of Auckland	of British Columbia & Helen Benzie, University of South	imperial college collocit
	reading group bring forth a future university we want to inhabit?  Jeanette Fyffe, Fiona Salisbury, Matt Brett & John Hannon, La Trobe University; Tai Peseta, Western Sydney	formation  Linlin Xu & Barbara Grant  University of Auckland	of British Columbia & Helen Benzie, University of South	imperial college London
	reading group bring forth a future university we want to inhabit?  Jeanette Fyffe, Fiona Salisbury, Matt Brett & John Hannon, La Trobe University; Tai Peseta, Western Sydney University; Giedre Kligyte, The University of Sydney &	formation  Linlin Xu & Barbara Grant  University of Auckland	of British Columbia & Helen Benzie, University of South	imperial college London
	reading group bring forth a future university we want to inhabit?  Jeanette Fyffe, Fiona Salisbury, Matt Brett & John Hannon, La Trobe University; Tai Peseta, Western Sydney University; Giedre Kligyte, The University of Sydney & University of Technology Sydney	formation Linlin Xu & Barbara Grant University of Auckland	of British Columbia & Helen Benzie, University of South	imperial college Lulidon
	reading group bring forth a future university we want to inhabit?  Jeanette Fyffe, Fiona Salisbury, Matt Brett & John Hannon, La Trobe University; Tai Peseta, Western Sydney University; Giedre Kligyte, The University of Sydney & University of Technology Sydney  New lecturers' journeys and the formation of the	formation  Linlin Xu & Barbara Grant  University of Auckland  How PhD advisors and students cope with the creativity-	of British Columbia & Helen Benzie, University of South	imperial college Lulidon
	reading group bring forth a future university we want to inhabit?  Jeanette Fyffe, Fiona Salisbury, Matt Brett & John Hannon, La Trobe University; Tai Peseta, Western Sydney University; Giedre Kligyte, The University of Sydney & University of Technology Sydney  New lecturers' journeys and the formation of the academic in higher education: a new model for academic	formation  Linlin Xu & Barbara Grant  University of Auckland  How PhD advisors and students cope with the creativity-	of British Columbia & Helen Benzie, University of South	imperial college Lolldon
	reading group bring forth a future university we want to inhabit?  Jeanette Fyffe, Fiona Salisbury, Matt Brett & John Hannon, La Trobe University; Tai Peseta, Western Sydney University; Giedre Kligyte, The University of Sydney & University of Technology Sydney  New lecturers' journeys and the formation of the	formation  Linlin Xu & Barbara Grant  University of Auckland  How PhD advisors and students cope with the creativity- governance nexus	of British Columbia & Helen Benzie, University of South	imperial college Lolldon
	reading group bring forth a future university we want to inhabit?  Jeanette Fyffe, Fiona Salisbury, Matt Brett & John Hannon, La Trobe University; Tai Peseta, Western Sydney University; Giedre Kligyte, The University of Sydney & University of Technology Sydney  New lecturers' journeys and the formation of the academic in higher education: a new model for academic identity	formation  Linlin Xu & Barbara Grant  University of Auckland  How PhD advisors and students cope with the creativity- governance nexus  Marc Torka	of British Columbia & Helen Benzie, University of South	imperial college Lolldon
	reading group bring forth a future university we want to inhabit?  Jeanette Fyffe, Fiona Salisbury, Matt Brett & John Hannon, La Trobe University; Tai Peseta, Western Sydney University; Giedre Kligyte, The University of Sydney & University of Technology Sydney  New lecturers' journeys and the formation of the academic in higher education: a new model for academic identity  Rebecca Hodgson	formation  Linlin Xu & Barbara Grant  University of Auckland  How PhD advisors and students cope with the creativity- governance nexus	of British Columbia & Helen Benzie, University of South	imperial college Lolldon
	reading group bring forth a future university we want to inhabit?  Jeanette Fyffe, Fiona Salisbury, Matt Brett & John Hannon, La Trobe University; Tai Peseta, Western Sydney University; Giedre Kligyte, The University of Sydney & University of Technology Sydney  New lecturers' journeys and the formation of the academic in higher education: a new model for academic identity	formation  Linlin Xu & Barbara Grant  University of Auckland  How PhD advisors and students cope with the creativity- governance nexus  Marc Torka	of British Columbia & Helen Benzie, University of South	imperial college Lolldon
Session 3B	reading group bring forth a future university we want to inhabit?  Jeanette Fyffe, Fiona Salisbury, Matt Brett & John Hannon, La Trobe University; Tai Peseta, Western Sydney University; Giedre Kligyte, The University of Sydney & University of Technology Sydney  New lecturers' journeys and the formation of the academic in higher education: a new model for academic identity  Rebecca Hodgson	formation  Linlin Xu & Barbara Grant  University of Auckland  How PhD advisors and students cope with the creativity- governance nexus  Marc Torka	of British Columbia & Helen Benzie, University of South	Imperial College London
	reading group bring forth a future university we want to inhabit?  Jeanette Fyffe, Fiona Salisbury, Matt Brett & John Hannon, La Trobe University; Tai Peseta, Western Sydney University; Giedre Kligyte, The University of Sydney & University of Technology Sydney  New lecturers' journeys and the formation of the academic in higher education: a new model for academic identity  Rebecca Hodgson  Sheffield Hallam University	formation  Linlin Xu & Barbara Grant  University of Auckland  How PhD advisors and students cope with the creativity- governance nexus  Marc Torka	of British Columbia & Helen Benzie, University of South	imperial Collège Loridon
Session 3B 13:00-14:00	reading group bring forth a future university we want to inhabit?  Jeanette Fyffe, Fiona Salisbury, Matt Brett & John Hannon, La Trobe University; Tai Peseta, Western Sydney University; Giedre Kligyte, The University of Sydney & University of Technology Sydney  New lecturers' journeys and the formation of the academic in higher education: a new model for academic identity  Rebecca Hodgson Sheffield Hallam University	formation  Linlin Xu & Barbara Grant University of Auckland  How PhD advisors and students cope with the creativity- governance nexus  Marc Torka  WZB Berlin Social Science Center & University of Sydney	of British Columbia & Helen Benzie, University of South	imperial Collège Loridon
Session 3B 13:00-14:00	reading group bring forth a future university we want to inhabit?  Jeanette Fyffe, Fiona Salisbury, Matt Brett & John Hannon, La Trobe University; Tai Peseta, Western Sydney University; Giedre Kligyte, The University of Sydney & University of Technology Sydney  New lecturers' journeys and the formation of the academic in higher education: a new model for academic identity  Rebecca Hodgson Sheffield Hallam University  Lunch  Keynote address	formation  Linlin Xu & Barbara Grant University of Auckland  How PhD advisors and students cope with the creativity- governance nexus  Marc Torka  WZB Berlin Social Science Center & University of Sydney	of British Columbia & Helen Benzie, University of South	imperial Collège Lolldon
Session 3B 13:00-14:00	reading group bring forth a future university we want to inhabit?  Jeanette Fyffe, Fiona Salisbury, Matt Brett & John Hannon, La Trobe University; Tai Peseta, Western Sydney University; Giedre Kligyte, The University of Sydney & University of Technology Sydney  New lecturers' journeys and the formation of the academic in higher education: a new model for academic identity  Rebecca Hodgson Sheffield Hallam University  Lunch  Keynote address  Restoring the freedom of students to learn in the peaceful	formation  Linlin Xu & Barbara Grant University of Auckland  How PhD advisors and students cope with the creativity- governance nexus  Marc Torka  WZB Berlin Social Science Center & University of Sydney	of British Columbia & Helen Benzie, University of South	imperial Collège Lolloui
Session 3B 13:00-14:00	reading group bring forth a future university we want to inhabit?  Jeanette Fyffe, Fiona Salisbury, Matt Brett & John Hannon, La Trobe University; Tai Peseta, Western Sydney University; Giedre Kligyte, The University of Sydney & University of Technology Sydney  New lecturers' journeys and the formation of the academic in higher education: a new model for academic identity  Rebecca Hodgson Sheffield Hallam University  Lunch  Keynote address Restoring the freedom of students to learn in the peaceful Professor Bruce Macfarlane, University of Bristol, UK	formation  Linlin Xu & Barbara Grant University of Auckland  How PhD advisors and students cope with the creativity- governance nexus  Marc Torka  WZB Berlin Social Science Center & University of Sydney	of British Columbia & Helen Benzie, University of South	imperial Collège Lolloui
Session 3B 13:00-14:00	reading group bring forth a future university we want to inhabit?  Jeanette Fyffe, Fiona Salisbury, Matt Brett & John Hannon, La Trobe University; Tai Peseta, Western Sydney University; Giedre Kligyte, The University of Sydney & University of Technology Sydney  New lecturers' journeys and the formation of the academic in higher education: a new model for academic identity  Rebecca Hodgson Sheffield Hallam University  Lunch  Keynote address Restoring the freedom of students to learn in the peaceful Professor Bruce Macfarlane, University of Bristol, UK Chair Dr Tai Peseta, Western University of Sydney	formation  Linlin Xu & Barbara Grant University of Auckland  How PhD advisors and students cope with the creativity- governance nexus  Marc Torka  WZB Berlin Social Science Center & University of Sydney	of British Columbia & Helen Benzie, University of South	Imperial Collège Loridon