Open Seminar and Book Launch

International Faculty in Asia
In Comparative Global Perspective

Edited by
Futao Huang, Hiroshima University
Anthony R. Welch, University of Sydney

Organized by Research Institute for Higher Education, Hiroshima University, Japan in collaboration with Melbourne Centre for the Study of Higher Education, University of Melbourne, Australia

---

Friday 28 May 2021

18.00-19.30 pm (Japan Time)

Zoom conference registration

https://rihe.hiroshima-u.ac.jp/en/2021/05/28-may-2021/

Addresses key aspects of international faculty members, from their personal, academic and professional profiles to their work roles and impacts.

This book explores key aspects of the personal, educational and professional characteristics of international faculty members, their work roles and challenges they face in Asia and the Pacific, compared to those from Europe and the United States. It focuses on globalization of the academic profession and provides a more comprehensive analysis of an overall portrait of international faculty members at work in various higher education systems.
Program

Introduction by the editors
Futao Huang (Hiroshima University, Japan), Anthony R. Welch (University of Sydney, Australia)

Speakers of presentation
Xian Wu (Shanghai Jiaotong University, China)
Shuangye Chen (East China Normal University, China)
Jun Cheol Shin (Seoul National University, Korea)
Chang Da Wan (National Higher Education Research Institute, Malaysia)
Rose C. Amazan (University of New South Wales, Australia)
Jos de Jonge (Rathenau Institute in The Hague, The Netherlands)
William Locke (University of Melbourne, Australia)
Xiushan Jiang (College of Charleston, The USA)

Q & A
Questions from participants and answers from authors

Concluding remarks
William Locke (University of Melbourne, Australia)