

Higher Education Forum

This publication carries English articles on the topic of general significance by leading international scholars in the field of higher education. It is widely circulated among researchers and organizations internationally, and receives much attention as one of flagship English-language publications of the Research Institute for Higher Education (RIHE). The publication was originally launched in 2003 with the aim of presenting the research results of the "21st COE program". Since then, the journal has been published annually and is now indexed in Scopus, ERIC and NSD.
